

CLEMENTINE SUTTER

Princeton, NJ · 609-212-9315 · clementine.j.sutter.29@dartmouth.edu

EDUCATION

Dartmouth College, Hanover, NH June 2029
Bachelor of Arts, intended Major in English and Classics; Minor in International Studies GPA 4.0/4.0

The Lawrenceville School, Lawrenceville, NJ June 2025

Honors/Awards:

- 2023 National Field Hockey Coaches Association-Scholar of Distinction Recipient (3.9+GPA)
- The English Department Prize for General Excellence
- McClellan Society for Dedication to Community Service

Clubs:

Varsity Crew, Varsity Field Hockey, The Lawrence Historical Review, Prize Papers, L10 News, Peer Tutor, House Historian, Day Student Representative, Lawrenceville Singers

LEADERSHIP AND ACTIVITIES

Dawes House Prefect September 2024 – June 2025
Student Leader

- Guided 80 freshman girls through their first year
- Managed budget for and organized house events, and served as a liaison for Heads of House

Lawrentians Educating for Advanced Placement September 2023 – June 2025
President

- Led weekly tutoring sessions in writing and public speaking for 15 students from Trenton
- Coordinated with families and school administration to support student success

The Lawrence September 2023 – June 2025
Features Editor

- Edited and formatted 5-6 articles weekly using InDesign for printed publication

Catholic Student Organization September 2021 – June 2025
President

- Coordinated with students and priest for weekly readings at Mass and facilitated club's participation in local Hope Walk for suicide prevention

GRANTS AND PROJECTS

Witherspoon Institute: Moral Life and Classical Tradition

- Selected for a weeklong seminar exploring moral thought within Judeo-Christian tradition, engaging with Platonic and Aristotelian philosophy, scientific inquiry, and modern ethical issues

Hutchins Civics Media Grant

- Collaborated with award-winning journalist Dr. Stacey Patton on a digital video project examining the foster care system through personal family experiences

"Art Together" - William Welles Award

- Created self-contained craft project bags for parent-child visitations in the foster care system, organizing summer workshops at PEI Kids in Lawrenceville

Merrill Scholars

- Conducted independent literary research on Vladimir Nabokov's Pale Fire, delivering a 23-page analysis exploring narrative frameworks, reality, and the genre of literary criticism. Presented findings at Lawrenceville Academic Showcase

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Dartmouth Learning Fellows Program, Hanover, NH Starting January, 2026
Latin I Learning Fellow

- Works directly with Classics Department to lead small group discussions and provide academic supports to peers in Latin I

Taylor Rae Designs, Lawrenceville, NJ June 2025 – August 2025
Social Media and Administrative Assistant

- Learned sewing and alteration techniques under the mentorship of a professional seamstress
- Designed and shared creative social media content to showcase handmade pieces
- Offered behind-the-scenes support, including organization of studio, customer preparation, and management of inbound calls

SKILLS

Technical: Adobe InDesign, Premiere Pro, Photoshop; Microsoft Excel

General: Academic research and writing, project management, community outreach, public speaking