

540 W 122nd Street New York, NY
New York, NY 10027
(315) 601-2948
mmannella26@gmail.com

Mario Salvatore Mannella

Education

United States Naval Academy — Bachelor's of History (Transferred)

June 2022 - January 2024; Annapolis, MD

- Studied history at the U.S. Naval Academy for three semesters, beginning in Fall of 2022.
- While at the Naval Academy, served as a writer, editor, and Club Treasurer for the LOG Magazine, the Academy's historic college lampoon.

Columbia University — Bachelor's of History (Anticipated)

August 2024 - Present; New York City, NY

- Studying history at the Columbia University School of General Studies.
- Involved with Columbia University Military Veterans and Columbia University College Republicans.

Military Service

U.S. Navy — Initial Training

November 2018 - November 2020

- Received initial technical training at the Naval Nuclear Power Training Command in Charleston, South Carolina.
- Assigned to nuclear submarine duty upon completion of training.

U.S. Navy — USS Hartford (SSN-768)

November 2020 - June 2022

- Served as a nuclear reactor operator aboard USS Hartford, a nuclear submarine stationed in Groton, Connecticut.
- While assigned to USS Hartford, received Submarine Warfare qualification, became qualified as a Shutdown Reactor Operator, and received the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.
- While aboard, applied for admission to the United States Naval Academy, and was accepted.