

IVY CHEN

ivypchen@stanford.edu | (703) 870-6532 | www.linkedin.com/in/ivychenn

EDUCATION

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

B.A.H. in Political Science and M.A. in Sociology | GPA: 3.9/4.0

Stanford, CA

June 2026

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

PERSEUS STRATEGIES

Washington, D.C.

Legal Intern

June 2024 – August 2024

- Authored a Dear Colleague Letter to the U.S. Treasury and State Departments urging sanctions on Azerbaijani officials for human rights violations committed in Nagorno-Karabakh under the Global Magnitsky Act and Executive Order 13818
- Lobbied 200+ U.S. House members to build Congressional support and signatories for the Dear Colleague Letter
- Drafted petitions submitted to the UN Working Group on Arbitrary Detention and White Paper reports and memos
- Enhanced website architecture to integrate a database of biographies detailing past and ongoing political prisoner cases
- Developed an in-depth timeline of two political prisoners' detention to support a legal case against the Iranian government
- Collaborated with staff to secure 100+ global NGO signatures for a human rights letter to the 57th UN Human Rights Council
- Edited chapters of an upcoming UN human rights handbook, ensuring precision in legal citations and formatting

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

Washington, D.C.

Civil Litigation Intern

June 2023 – August 2023

- Researched case law and assisted six Assistant Attorney Generals in developing legal arguments and court case strategies
- Drafted responses to interrogatories, memos, and motions, applying legal research and analysis to strengthen case arguments
- Accompanied attorneys to take detailed notes during witness depositions, providing support for case preparation
- Executed the aggregation and systematic organization of case documents, streamlining accessibility of legal records
- Supported attorneys during trials and hearings at the District of Columbia District Court and the Court of Appeals

AMERICAN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Washington, D.C.

Research Assistant for Professor Chris Edelson

June 2021 – August 2022

- Conducted legal research on constitutional issues, analyzing landmark cases, statutes, and legal precedents to support book
- Authored researched papers and reports on constitutional law topics, including comparative analyses of judicial interpretations and their impacts on legal theory during President Trump's term
- Provided guidance on reforms related to constitutional law for national policy development and legislative proposals

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Stanford, CA

Undergraduate Senator, Chair

April 2022 – May 2025

- Contributed to five legislative proposals, including a proposal for greater student-athlete support following Stanford's transition to the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC)
- Led an initiative to extend Green Library's hours to 24/7 by surveying 1,200+ undergraduate and graduate students, preparing and presenting the data in an annual budget hearing to the Provost, and securing $3 million in operational funding
- Regularly meet with the President, Provost, members of the University Cabinet and Faculty Senate to advocate for 7,800+ undergraduate students and represent student interests in University affairs to solve issues on campus and in the community
- Authorized $4.2 million in annual funding for 600+ student organizations as a member of the Appropriations Committee

ENCODE AI

San Jose, CA

Director of Policy; Founding Member

July 2020 – December 2023

- Lobbied 26 members of Congress and 50+ local/state legislators
- Introduced successful facial recognition bans and surveillance ordinances in San Jose, Minneapolis, and Seattle
- Spearheaded training of 45+ international policy writers and authored 12+ issue briefs and proposals
- Cultivated the organization's member engagement project for 200+ members with 95% success rate

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

Languages: English (fluent), Mandarin (fluent), Spanish (limited working proficiency)

Interests: Professional Basketball, Weightlifting, Hiking, Reading, Public Speaking, Playing Flute, Volunteering, Conservative World