

CHLOE J. MASTOUR

917-301-7176 | cmastour@sas.upenn.edu

EDUCATION:

University of Pennsylvania • Philadelphia, PA | Bachelor of Arts, Expected Graduation: 05/2027
GPA: 3.5

Special Permission to Enroll in Law School Seminar

Course: Conservative Political and Legal Thought (Law School Course, Professor Amy Wax)

- Taking a year-long advanced seminar alongside law school students, exploring the conservative intellectual tradition in Anglo-American and European thought and its ramifications for law.

WORK EXPERIENCE

White House Intern | Domestic Policy Council Washington, D.C. | June 2025 - August 2024

- Drafted correspondence, speeches, and historical scripts for high-profile America 250 events, including public remarks for senior officials, ceremonial addresses, and internal briefings.
- Coordinated across multiple executive offices and delivered high-level institutional evaluations and provided actionable recommendations to senior leadership.

Freelance Writer | Chronicles Magazine Online and Print | July 2024 – Present

- Write editorials and long-form essays analyzing the political strategies and acumen of Donald Trump in the context of the 2024 election.
- Contribute to both online and print editions, delivering insightful analysis and compelling arguments that engage a broad readership.
- Demonstrate expertise in articulating complex political theories and cultural critiques.

Contributing Writer | The Washington Free Beacon Arlington, VA | May 2024 – August 2024

- Conducted in-depth research and analysis on key political topics, supporting the publication's mission to provide insightful conservative commentary.
- Authored several bylines, demonstrating a strong understanding of current events and their implications within a conservative framework.
- Collaborated closely with editors and writers to produce high-quality content under tight deadlines, refining communication skills and editorial proficiency.

Columnist | Great Neck Record Great Neck, NY | September 2019 – June 2023

- Wrote columns on local events, providing insightful perspectives and engaging content for a diverse community readership.
- Conducted in-depth research, managed deadlines, and communicated effectively with readers and editors.

Intern | Office of Senator Charles Schumer New York, NY | June 2022 – Aug 2022

- Engaged in constituent services, advocating for solutions aligned with my conservative values on issues such as Social Security, Immigration, Veterans Affairs, and Medicare.

- Contributed to policy discussions by offering conservative perspectives on key issues, focusing on promoting limited government and fiscal responsibility.
- Produced high-level speechwriting and correspondence for legislative addresses, town halls, and public policy statements, adapting tone and language to audience, occasion, and strategic goals.
- Collaborated with senior staff to research and synthesize speech content that advanced Senator Schumer's legislative agenda.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE:

Founder & President | Turning Point USA at the University of Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, PA | September 2023 – Present

- Founded and currently lead a prominent campus organization focused on advancing conservative principles and values.
- Recruit and educate students to serve as a dominant force in campus conservatism.
- Uphold the moral traditions of America's Founders while advocating for the liberty to pursue virtuous and meaningful endeavors.
- Oversee all aspects of event planning and execution, including promotion, ticketing, fundraising, scheduling, securing venues, and coordinating technical requirements for hosting high-profile conservative speakers.

Active Member | The David Network University of Pennsylvania | September 2023 – Present

- Selected as an invited member of a prestigious network for students from America's top 10 universities, focused on exploring values and policies that promote human flourishing, particularly those grounded in the Judeo-Christian tradition and First Amendment rights.
- Advocate for the inherent dignity of all human life, the importance of Abrahamic religions in civil society, and the institution of the family, strengthening efforts to defend religious liberty, freedom of expression, and protections for the unborn.
- Represent the University of Pennsylvania at the annual Washington, D.C. conference, including participation in the March for Life, contributing to discussions on key conservative principles.

AWARDS & HONORS:

ISI Journalism Fellowship | Intercollegiate Studies Institute (ISI) May 2024 – August 2024

- Awarded a prestigious journalism fellowship through ISI's Collegiate Network, providing hands-on experience and mentorship in media with an emphasis on integrity and truth.
- Gained professional training and development while contributing to impactful reporting, working alongside seasoned journalists in leading media outlets.
- Committed to upholding the principles of a free and responsible press, strengthening skills in ethical journalism and reporting.

PROJECTS & PUBLICATIONS

"Research Project Spans Generations: Recovering Lost Work on Humanity's Most Resilient"

Independent Research Project | June 2022 – Dec 2022

- Examined the post-Holocaust experiences of survivors, analyzing whether trauma led to permanent debilitation or societal reintegration.

Published in Academy Forum: Journal of the American Academy of Psychodynamic Psychiatry and Psychoanalysis. | March 2023

- Published research on the psychological resilience of Holocaust survivors, contributing to academic discourse on trauma and recovery.

Gold Key Recipient, Scholastic Art and Writing Awards | January 2022

- Awarded Gold Key for outstanding writing in the Scholastic Art and Writing Awards.

“Depending on the Kindness of Strangers: The Unsung Rescuers of Black Academia”

The Concord Review | Feb 2022 – Nov 2022

- Conducted independent research on historically black colleges' role in rescuing Jewish refugees during the Holocaust.
- Published a book based on this research, examining how historically Black colleges helped rescue Jewish refugees during the Holocaust, and why those persecuted in the Jim Crow South extended refuge to these scholars, ultimately saving their lives.

SKILLS:

Strong research, writing, and editing skills with expertise in journalism, political analysis, and cultural issues; experienced in leading editorial teams, publishing, and content management. Proficient in digital tools, media relations, and creating engaging, high-quality content.