

Sabrina Wang

New York, NY 10025 | 3473003615 | zw3100@columbia.edu

Dynamic undergraduate with cross-industry experience in finance, luxury, and real estate through internships at JP Morgan HK, PwC Shanghai, Kering Shanghai, and Hiwin Group (Manhattan). Former national beauty pageant titleholder and President of an international organization's Chinese committee, with proven skills in leadership, event coordination, and high-profile stakeholder engagement. Adept at project management, strategic planning, and cross-cultural collaboration, bringing a unique blend of professional expertise and public-facing experience.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Mathematics Expected in August 2027
Columbia University, New York

- Awarded - First Prize in the Mathematical Modeling Contest for American High School Students

Skills

- Portfolio risk management
- Corporate communications
- Targeted marketing
- Partnerships and affiliations
- Project Managing

Experience

VP of Professional Development

Hiwin Group, New York, NY | May 2025 - Current

One of the largest real estate developers in Midtown Manhattan, with 8 active programs across New York State.

- Enhanced organizational efficiency by introducing AI-driven solutions and implementing project management tools such as Monday.com to streamline workflows.
- Partnered with senior management to design and execute strategic initiatives and long-term growth objectives for multiple development projects.
- Improved negotiation processes with the NYC Department of Buildings and leading architectural/interior firms such as Kohn Pedersen Fox (KPF), contributing to faster approvals and stronger vendor relationships.

Intern at Private Banking Department

JP Morgan, Hongkong | May 2024 - August 2024

- Supported the “China Offshore Wealth Initiative” in J.P. Morgan Private Bank Hong Kong, assisting the newly appointed Head of China Market in developing client coverage strategies for UHNW clients.
- Conducted market research on RMB internationalization, family trust structures, and cross-border investment policies, producing briefing notes that informed client advisory and product positioning.

- Assisted in organizing investment strategy seminars on sustainable investing, private equity, and cross-border succession planning, enhancing client engagement and brand visibility in the Greater China market.

Intern at Management Consulting Department

EY, Shanghai | February 2023 - May 2023

- Analyzed policies and industry chain structures in China's new energy vehicle (NEV) sector, conducting in-depth evaluation of GMV and performance metrics of leading companies including Alibaba, SAIC, and Tesla.
- Forecasted market size and development trends for green-plate vehicles by integrating NEV penetration rates, proprietary internal data, and historical auto market performance over the past three years.

Intern at APAC LTD(learning Talent Department)

KERING Group, Shanghai | March 2022 - September 2022

Supported the overall planning of Greater China's Management Training Program, contributing to initiatives exploring how the fashion industry can adopt sustainable development practices to achieve a business model with positive environmental impact.

- Assisted in talent development programs for brands including Gucci, Balenciaga and YSL, such as the 7 Habits of Highly Effective People training, to strengthen senior leadership capabilities and enhance organizational innovation.

Extracurricular activities

National Beauty Pageant Queen – Represented China in one of the Big Four international pageants, 2022

- Developed public speaking, media engagement, and event coordination skills
- Participated in cultural and charitable initiatives, collaborating with diverse stakeholders