

THEODORE WITT

(646) 589-4301
teddy.witt@yale.edu

123 Marvel Road
New Haven, CT 06515

EDUCATION

Yale University, New Haven, CT expected May 2028

- Bachelor of Arts, Philosophy and History, GPA: 3.97
- Selected Coursework: Spinoza's Political Philosophy, The Global Right, The Politics of American Public Policy, Directed Studies

Hopkins School, New Haven, CT May 2024

- Honors: Cum Laude Society, Delaney Kipputh Prize in History (Grade 12), Feinberg Prize for Excellence in the Written Word (Grade 11)
- Activities: The Razor (Op-Ed Editor), Writing Studio (Tutor), Disciplinary Committee, Varsity Soccer, Varsity Baseball, published in the Hopkins History Journal

EXPERIENCE

Deciding to Win, Research Assistant	March – November 2025
• Conducted polling research, data manipulation, and copyediting for Deciding to Win , a comprehensive study of the 2024 presidential election featured in several major media outlets.
Slingshot Strategies, Fellow, New York, NY	May – August 2025
• Pitched stories, created news roundups, and assisted with press conferences for a political consulting firm, working primarily in polling and communications across the federal, state, and local levels
Leibniz AI, Intern, New Haven, CT	May – August 2024
• Summarized data and generated training prompts for a media law LLM built by Scott J. Shapiro, Charles F. Southmayd Professor of Law at Yale Law School

LEADERSHIP & ACTIVITIES

Conservative Party (Yale Political Union), President of Inklings, New Haven, CT May 2025 – Present

- Lead a biweekly reading and discussion group on philosophical topics, assigning readings and guiding conversation for an organization of 75+ undergraduates
- Participate in weekly debates, writing and giving speeches on politics and philosophy

Yale Daily News, Columnist, New Haven, CT October 2024 – Present

- Write regular opinion columns on campus and national politics for the school newspaper, combining history and philosophy with contemporary political analysis

Sir Thomas More Lecture Series, President, New Haven, CT May – December 2025

- Organized and coordinated a weekly faculty-led lunch lecture series focused primarily on political theory, managing intellectual agenda, speaker scheduling, and logistics

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

- “When The Game was nearly called off,” Yale Daily News, November 21, 2025
 - “The degenerated state of baseball,” Yale Daily News, September 26, 2025
 - “Proximate rage and responsibility,” Yale Daily News, February 6, 2025
 - “Mobster politics and American loneliness,” Yale Daily News, January 17, 2025