

JACK MURPHY
john.mj.murphy@gmail.com

---

EDUCATION

---

Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University , Providence, RI MD Candidate, ScM Candidate in Population Medicine	2027
Postbaccalaureate Premedical Program, Bryn Mawr College , Bryn Mawr, PA	2023
Providence College , Providence, RI Bachelor of Arts, Social Work & Spanish GPA: 3.96/4.00; Liberal Arts Honors Program, Summa Cum Laude	2020

---

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

COVID Support Team , Jenks Park Pediatrics, Central Falls, RI	December 2021 – July 2023
• Provided information about the PCR and antigen tests to patients and performed the COVID test on patients
• Assisted and interpreted for patients in Spanish as they fill out their paperwork for their COVID test
• Processed COVID-19 antigen tests in the laboratory and documented the results of the tests
• Removed waste from the clinic and disinfected surfaces in the laboratory
Fulbright English Teaching Assistantship , Asunción, Paraguay	January 2021 – November 2021
• Facilitated English language learning clubs for 15-30 participants with the National University of Asunción
• Supported group of 15 marginalized Paraguayan high schoolers in their studies at an after-school study hall program
• Volunteered at a pediatric clinic which provides health care services to uninsured youth
Intern &amp; Program Coordinator , Progreso Latino, Central Falls, RI	June 2019 – December 2020
• Coordinated domestic violence program for a group of 20 Latina survivors
• Utilized trauma informed care to carry out case management services for clients
• Completed program reports and tabulated several hundred services for the Victim Assistance Grant Program
• Collaborated regularly with partners in the community to ensure comprehensive care for survivors
• Performed educational domestic violence workshops for program clients, highlighting power dynamics in abusive relationships and community resources
AmeriCorps VISTA , Brunswick, ME	May – August 2016
• Worked in conjunction with the Mid Coast Hunger Prevention Program and the Department of Education to provide Free and Reduced Lunches to children in Mid Coast Maine
• Gained leadership and organizational skills, coordinating volunteers to prepare between 200 and 350 lunches each day and deliver them to different parts of the region

---

OTHER EXPERIENCES

---

Social Work in a Latin American Context , Cuernavaca, Mexico	January – May 2019
• Studied Social work and Spanish in semester abroad program
• Assisted with a literacy program designed for 15 seniors in a non-profit organization in rural region in Mexico
Participated in classes at the University of Mexico to learn about the study of social work in Latin America
Fr. Philip A. Smith, O.P. Student Fellow for Service Abroad , Rivas, Nicaragua	May – July 2018
• Planned and proposed a six-week service program in Rivas, Nicaragua to the Fellowship Selection Committee
• Prepared and taught lessons and created interactive English learning classes for 5-11th graders
• Presented experiences in front of an audience of professors and peers
Long-Term Service , Asunción, Paraguay	September 2015 – May 2016, Summers 2017 – 2019
• Lived in community with Franciscan Priests and worked with the underserved in Asunción
• Tutored math in elementary schools and prepared English lessons for high schoolers
• Became bilingual and acquired invaluable knowledge regarding the richness of other cultures

---

CORE PROFICIENCY

---

- Bilingual (English & Spanish)