

Anya Marino
(781) 885-4139 -- am5698@princeton.edu

EDUCATION

Princeton University, Princeton, NJ	May 2028
A.B. in Public and International Affairs with a Concentration in Economic Development and Minor in Values and Public Life
Relevant Coursework: Ways of Knowing, Microeconomics, International Relations, Introduction to Cognitive Neuroscience, Ethics and Public Policy, Constitutional Interpretation, SPIA Task Force, Critical Care: Technology, Innovation, and the Human Experience
Athletics & Clubs: James Madison Program Fellow, Synchronized Skating, Bible Study, Scholars Institute Fellows Program, Pro-Life
Montrose School, Medfield, MA	May 2024
Relevant Coursework: AP United States Government and Politics, Ethics of Human Flourishing, Questions for Human Flourishing
Honors & Awards: National Honor Society 2022-, Honor Roll, AP Scholar, National History Day Best Project in Indigenous History 2021, National History Day Honorable Mention 2021, Spanish II Award 2021, National Spanish Exam Honorable Mention 2021, 4-year Trustee Scholarship Recipient, Joan Mary Powers Scholarship Recipient, AP US Government and Politics Award
Hillsdale College Online	Spring 2022
Completed “An Introduction to C.S. Lewis: Writings and Significance” and “Introduction to the Constitution”

RELEVANT RESEARCH and PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Witherspoon Institute, Princeton, NJ	Summer 2023
Accepted into a 7-day Moral Life and Classical Tradition seminar to understand classical philosophy and contemporary issues in moral thought. Studied readings and differing opinions to reach an understanding between members of discussion
Harvard University Splash Program	Spring 2022
Participated in two student-led online classes: “Debates in Bioethics” and “Making Sense Out of Senses”
Abigail Adams Institute, Cambridge, MA	Summer 2022
Accepted into a 5-day Common Good in the Digital Age seminar to explore tensions between freedom, authority, and self-interest. Examine how diverse philosophical perspectives have shaped modern liberal society, using ancient to contemporary writers

RELEVANT SERVICE, ADVOCACY, and LEADERSHIP

Casket-Maker, Winchester, MA	2018 – Present
Custom build wooden and lined caskets; gift caskets to Boston-area families of deceased preterm and full-term infants
Foster Family, Winchester, MA	June 2018 - Present
Assist in care of three foster brothers born with Neonatal Abstinence Syndrome during substance withdrawal; assist with their physical therapy and speech and language program needs
Massachusetts Lions Club Speech Competition	October 2021 - February 2022
Wrote a personal speech investigating accountability within the Massachusetts foster system, coming in first place at a school, club, and zone level; competed in regional level bringing awareness to the issues of the system through my own family’s foster situation
Duffel Bags for Kids, Winchester Public Schools and Department of Children and Families	January 2019 – February 2020
Initiated and implemented collection of duffel bags for the Massachusetts Department of Children and Families to promote the dignity of foster children by removing their use of trash bags to carry personal belongings
Intern, Woburn District Courthouse, Woburn, MA	Summer 2025
Assist with daily administrative and clerical duties, observe court proceedings, and receive hands-on training in the processes and procedures of the criminal justice system. Organize case files, data entry, assist with courtroom preparation, and support clerks.

RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE and SKILLS

Waitress, Function Staff, Busser, Hostess, Lucia's Restaurant, Winchester, MA	May 2024 - Present
Deliver exceptional customer service to guests, maintain clean dining areas to ensure a welcoming experience. Assist with event setups and breakdowns for functions and collaborate with staff to address requests, ensure satisfaction, and repeat patronage
Nanny, Winchester and Medford, MA	2019 – Present
Work full-time during summer and part-time on weekends to meet childcare needs for families with several young children
Language Skills: Limited Spanish Proficiency
Technology Skills: slide creation, word processing, Microsoft Excel, research and find scholarly information on specific topics	